

Co-funded by Erasmus+
Jean Monnet Module

Summer School

Personal Income Tax In European Union

---

Sep. 19th to 23rd 2022

Agenda

- Motivations
- Objectives
- Team Members
- Plan

Motivations

- ❖ Reforming income tax in Iran and transition from scheduler tax system to personal one.
- ❖ The importance of details in designing such a system
- ❖ A long history of experiences in EU member states in implementing PIT.

Objectives

---

The First

- To introduce European Union angle into mainly non EU related studies
- Identify unifying principles of PIT in EU as well as its details (comparative Study)

The Second

- To Promote research experience for young researchers and scholars and practitioners in European Union issues.
- To raise new research questions, comparative studies and so on

The Third

- To fosters the publication and dissemination of the results of academic research.

Team Members

Marco Gregg

Lawyer and Professor of International Taxation Law at the University of Ferrara, Italy

Georges Cavalier

Associate Professor of Law at the University of Lyon, France.

Nataša Žunić Kovačević

Full professor of Law at the Faculty of Law, University of Rijeka, Croatia

Anna Bialek Jaworska
Economist, University of Warsaw (Poland)

Jose Miguel Martin

Assistant Prof. of Tax Law at the Universidad Pablo de Olavide (Spain)

Montserrat Herмосín Álvarez

Professor in Tax Law at Pablo de Olavide (Spain).

Mónica Arribas Leon
full professor of Financial and Tax Law at Pablo de Olavide (Spain)

Ali Nassiri Aghdam

Economist and Assistant Professor at the University of ATU, Iran

The Plan (Second Week)

Thank You

Ali Nassiri Aghdam

alin110@atu.ac.ir

<https://piteu.atu.ac.ir>